

CORPUS AGAIN FALLS DOWN

FAILS TO WIN A GAME OF THE SERIES.

A Good Team, But Not in Same Class With Brownsville — Makes Six Straight Games Taken from Corpus This Season.

Again Brownsville has taken three straight games from Corpus Christi, making it six straight this season. Corpus has a good ball team, but they are out of their class when playing our champions. The timely hitting of Reyes in Saturday's and Sunday afternoon's games was responsible for the winning runs. Yesterday afternoon proved to be Corpus' unfortunate day. Whitney, their left fielder, in sliding to second base in the first half of the fourth inning, sprained his right ankle, necessitating his being carried from the field. Shannon, their big second baseman, had the misfortune in the same inning to be accidentally spiked by Merritt while sliding to second. He was, however, able to continue. At this stage of the game Pelligrino, their third baseman, ran away and came to town. No amount of persuasion could get him to continue in the game, so Gollhar, a former resident of Corpus, but now a member of the Brownsville team, was substituted in his place, going to second and Shannon to third. By the addition of Gollhar, the Corpus team was materially strengthened, but—the scores tell the story:

Burrell, pastor of the First Baptist church of Brownsville, expects to leave in two weeks for Balwin, Miss., where he goes in response to a pressing invitation to officiate at the dedication of a new Baptist church. Dr. Burrell was formerly pastor of the Baldwin Baptist church and this will naturally be a most interesting event for him, as well as for the members of the congregation there, who still hold their former pastor in such affectionate remembrance. Dr. Burrell will also attend the Confederate reunion at Memphis during his absence. He will probably be away for a month or six weeks.
